

Final Capstone Project : Analisis between Lima (Peru) and Santiago (Chile)

Introduction

Peru and Chile are countries in South America and they are neighbor.

Lima is the capital of Peru, in 2018 Lima had 9 millions and 320 thousand habitants and has a surface of 2,672 km². Peru is recognized for its excellent food.

Santiago is the capital of Chile and has 641 km² of surface and had 7 millions people.

Business Problem

I live in Lima Peru, It's probably that I get a job in Santiago de Chile, So, I have to analyze If lives in Santiago is the same or not that live in Lima.

Basically, I am interested in:

_Education, so I have to analyze If I have the same opportunities in Santiago, how many universities I have near the downtown.

_I want to analyze about my hobby (Go to the cinema, Theater and museum).

_Finally I am really interested about food, I have the best food in Lima Peru, So I want to know If I will find good restaurants in Santiago.
